DOD: 12-18-08		PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR was authorized to administer and distribute the Decedent's estate pursuant to Probate Code §7660(a)(1) on 1-16-09. On 6-30-11, the court set status hearing for failure to file an account or petition for final distribution on 8-10-11, which was continued to this date. Background: Joanne Sanoian was court-appointed counsel for the Decedent in the Conservatorship Case 08CEPR00367. On 3-11-09, the court granted attorney's fees in the amount of $1,380.00, payable from the conservatorship estate. On 5-14-09, Joanne Sanoian filed a Creditor's Claim for that amount and a Request for Special Notice in this estate case. Since then, two additional creditor's claims have been filed ($998.25 and $373.98). The Inventory and Appraisal filed 6-3-09 reflected a total estate value of $60,400.00, including real property, a 1984 Pontiac Grand Am, and miscellaneous household furniture and personal effects. A Notice of Proposed Action filed 3-12-10 indicated that the Public Administrator proposed to sell the real property for $60,000.00, less commission, etc. On 7-11-11, Public Administrator filed an ex parte request for extraordinary commissions for sale of the Decedent's real and personal property in the amount of $1,345.55. That petition was set for noticed hearing (Page 5B) due to the Request for Special Notice and granted on 8-10-11. Also on 8-10-11, the Court continued the status hearing for failure to file an account or petition for final distribution to 10-12-11. Status Report filed 10-7-11 states that this because this $7660 estate is insolvent with creditors, the Public Administrator will be filing a formal account and request for distribution, and is in the process of preparing the documents.	NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS: Minute Order 10-12-11: Matter continued to 12-12-11 at the request of the Public Administrator. As of 12-5-11, nothing further has been filed. 1. SUMMARY (Continued):

Attorney Ruth Lind filed a Memorandum of Points and Authorities in Support of the Petition on 12-5-11 that addresses certain issues and discusses the background of the case, including the dispute over various wills, the trust, the position of the executor in the church, etc.

- 1) Was admission of the will proper and can probate now be revoked? Petitioner states the will was properly admitted to probate and probate cannot now be revoked, with reference to code regarding appeal and will contest.

[Examiner notes that it is unclear why this is addressed, as this is not an issue at this petition/first account.]

Petitioner also states: "Brown and Wyatt have made it clear that they want ½ of the estate distributed to Brown as Trustee of the Chester and Lorene Beeler Living Trust." [Examiner notes that, as noted above, this is not an issue at this time.

This petition/first account requests preliminary distribution of the will's other devises.]

- 2) Does the compensation provision in the will govern if it is greater than the statutory fee compensation? Petitioner states the will governs compensation to the personal representative as provided in Probate Code §10802.
- 3) What was intent of testator and how should will be interpreted? Petitioner discusses whether the 50% devise should go to the trust or to the church. [Examiner notes that, as noted above, this is not an issue at this time.]
- 4) Are extraordinary fees of Petitioner's attorneys reasonable, and can they be paid before final distribution? The memo references code and other cites regarding extraordinary compensation, and states that litigation was undertaken to benefit the estate or to protect its interests and meets the requirements of Probate Code §10832 re extraordinary compensation before final distribution because:
- It is likely that administration will continue for an "unusually long time" because the executor has been unable to obtain the necessary documentation for filing tax returns.
  - Payment of extraordinary fees at this time will benefit the estate and beneficiaries by avoiding additional extraordinary services over objections which could further deplete the estate.
  - Other good cause is shown because the attorneys were required to devote substantial time and extraordinary legal services and their normal income diminished accordingly, causing hardship to the attorneys. The prospect of having to wait until the end of a protracted estate for payment would discourage many from agreeing to become a personal representative or attorney for a personal representative.

1. Petitioner notes ambiguity in the will re payment of the portion to decedent's "trust account."

The will states: "50% of all my assets will go into the Beeler Trust Account before my Sisters and Brother are paid." The will then lists specific gifts of $40,000.00 each to the four siblings, $100,000.00 to the church, and any residual to a ministry.

However, the will later states that if the decedent's wife dies before the "trust account" has run out, then the remainder of the account shall go to the church. Petitioner notes that the wife died 4-2-10, and there is a dispute regarding whether the 50% should go to the trust or directly to the church.

Also at this time, only 50% of the net value of the estate can be distributed pursuant to Probate Code §11623. POH is $352,369.90 cash. If the requested fees/commissions are approved, only 50% ($153,862.60) would distributable at this time.

It appears this can be treated as the same 50% that will later be determined to either go to the trust or to the church – which means that the total amount available for the specific gifts cannot exceed that 50%, even at final distribution.

Petitioner requests to distribute a total of $203,431.28, which exceeds that 50%. Petitioner specifically requests to pay the entire specific gift of $100,000.00 to the church per the language quoted above, and abates the specific gifts to the siblings.

Also however: Petitioner states the reason the estate is not ready to close is the income tax issue. Examiner notes that if taxes are due or additional costs are incurred for preparation, etc., then the amount distributable may need to be reduced further.

Therefore, in order to not exceed distribution of more than the 50% (per Probate Code §11623, and to protect the 50% that is due to the trust or church), further abatement is necessary.

The Court may also require an estimate of future administration costs and may require reduction in preliminary distributions based on these issues noted.

2. Petitioner computes and references a statutory fee, and then states that his payment per the will that provides that the personal representative will receive 5% commission for on the sale of any assets. Petitioner then states he should be paid a total of $17,618.50 for "administering the estate as per the intent and Will of decedent" and requests 95%, or $16,737.58.

Attorney Lind's points and authorities confirm that Probate Code §10802 states that except if a personal representative petitions for and is granted relief from this provision, if the will makes provision for compensation of the personal representative, the compensation provided by the will shall be the full and only compensation for the services of the personal representative.

However, there has been no sale of assets by Executor (See ¶20-21). The only inventoried asset is cash, which has been held in blocked accounts. Examiner notes that if Probate Code §10802 is held effective, the compensation to Petitioner would be $0 (zero) because nothing was sold.

Even if Petitioner is granted relief from Probate Code §10802, and statutory fees are allowed, and the Court agrees to consider whether extraordinary compensation is appropriate, the Petition does not contain information regarding the specific services rendered (Cal. Rule of Court 7.702).

Therefore, need clarification and authority for compensation as requested.

3. The Public Administrator served as Special Administrator from 4-20-10 through 8-17-10 during the period of trial prep on competing petitions for probate and was responsible for gathering and preserving the assets of the estate. Petitioner does not address whether the statutory compensation for the personal representative and attorneys will be shared per agreement with Public Administrator and County Counsel pursuant to Probate Code §10814 based on either agreement or performance. The Court may require notice and agreement or itemization to determine appropriate apportionment. [Examiner notes that line items in the attorneys' declarations include conference and correspondence with Heather Kruthers (County Counsel).]

4. Need direct notice to beneficiaries served "c/o" Attorney Bagdasarian pursuant to Probate Code §1214 ("also to the attorney") and Cal. Rule of Court 7.51(a) (Direct Notice Required).

5. Attorney Lind's declaration re extraordinary fees includes a line item dated 11-28-10: "Legal Research – Brokers commission; Draft Correspondence to Bagdasarian re sale."

Examiner notes that if assets were sold, this may explain Petitioner's compensation request; however, it presents the issue that there were no saleable assets inventoried; therefore, supplemental I&A may be necessary.

Need clarification.

6. Attorney Lind's declaration re extraordinary fees includes a line item dated 7-20-11 for 2.5 hours ($500.00): "...Draft Schedule of executor extraordinary services."

However, there does not appear to be a schedule of the executor's extraordinary services, as noted above. Need clarification.

7. Attorney Krause-Cota's declaration re extraordinary fees includes costs for copies, mileage and parking of $32.40. These items are considered by the Court to be costs of doing business and are not reimbursable per Local Rule 7.17.

8. Attorney Lind states it is likely that administration will continue for an "unusually long time," but does not provide an estimate of the time needed to close the administration pursuant to Probate Code §12201(a). Need information.
